

PROHIBITION EF-COLUMBUS, AND
DES COUNTY MISS.

Personal letters from representative business men.

Miss. Sept. 2nd 1907.
County Temperance Lea-

I am in receipt of recent date in to prohibition. In re-to advise that from accidence I have found that is one of the greatest that a community and could possibly possess,— ally and commercially.

Columbus and Lowndes and saloons, for example year 1890 we had a population of 4500 people

After this we voted out According to the 1906 of the city of Columbus population 11,500 people. note that within a percent years (thirteen or we been under prohibi-
have more than doubled population. The county

The Song of the Hair

There are four verses. Verse 1.
Ayer's Hair Vigor stops falling hair. Verse 2. Ayer's Hair Vigor makes the hair grow.
Verse 3. Ayer's Hair Vigor cures dandruff. Verse 4.
Ayer's Hair Vigor makes the scalp healthy, and keeps it so.
It is a regular hair-food; this is the real secret of its wonderful success.

The best kind of a testimonial—trying to fill our town with bottles and jugs from Pickens County. The drunkards seen in our town are nearly always men who visit the saloons at State Line, Pickensville, Gorbo, and Carrolton, or have it shipped to them from these places in jugs and bottles. May God help the good people to wipe the saloon business out of the grand old County of

A GREAT SURPRISE!

The Plowboy has returned from New York. When I landed in the great city I was surprised to find that all the buggaboo about high prices was not so, with only a few exceptions. Calicos and domestics are a little stiff in price.

I wish to state now that I am going to surprise all of my customers with the lowest prices, even when you sold your cottan for 6 and 61-2 cents. Some smart Jay will be ready to jump up and say that is not so. We are not looking for you but if you will chew your tobacco on the other side for a day and night, then come and see for your self, we can convince you and you could go home wearing one of our men's hats in the latest style at less than half of the actural value.

This sale will be a great surprise to you in the first place the quantity of goods we will offer Every bit of available space is packed with new goods, every article in the house will be included in this sale except domestics, callicos and checks and we will divide with you on these. The millinery will be the same as we have always been—cheap, and we fear no competition in that department

DEATH OF MRS. M. A. WIL- LIAMS.

The death of Mrs. M. A. Williams occured at the home of her son in the Flatwoods on last Wednesday. Although in feeble health her death was sudden and unexpected.

She was 72 years old and was known and loved by many people out of her immediate neighborhood. She was a member Jennings Chapel Protestant Methdist church, where she has been for many years a consistent member. A good woman has passed away and many friends mourn with the relatives on account of her loss. She leaves two sons Messrs. T. D. and D. C. Williams These have the sympathy of numerous friends.

The burial was at Jennings Chapel in the Flatwoods.

MR. W. T. DAVIS DEAD.

The death of Mr. W. T. Davis occurred at the home of his son-in-law Mr. J. A. Mausfield in Tuscaloosa last Thursday night.

He was born in Shelby county but had been living in this county for many years. He was 72 years of age and his long and honorable life had won the high es-
